  - d) The Introduction, Recitals and Schedules to this Agreement each form an integral part of it.

2. Condition

- 2.1 This Agreement shall be conditional in all respects upon the Company submitting to AIFF a Performance Security for an amount equal to INR ______ [This amount shall be 3 times of the Guaranteed Payment amount for Year 1] (Indian Rupees ______ crore) (the "Condition")
- 2.2 The Company shall as soon as practicable and in any event within 30 days of the execution of this Agreement shall satisfy the Condition and if the Condition has not been so satisfied then AIFF shall be entitled (but not obliged) to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by written notice to the Company.
- 2.3 Performance Security
  - company shall deliver to AIFF and maintain Performance Security as specified in this Clause 2, which shall remain valid at all times through the Term specified. The Performance Security shall be in the form of a Bank Guarantee from any Scheduled Bank. The Bank Guarantee shall be in the form provided by AIFF and shall be finalized in mutual agreement between AIFF and the Company.
  - b. If the Company commits a material breach of any of the warranties, undertakings, obligations and/or conditions of this Agreement, then upon occurrence of such breach AIFF shall, without prejudice to its other rights and remedies hereunder or in law, be entitled to encash and appropriate relevant amounts from the Performance Security as damages. Upon such encashment and appropriation from the Performance Security, the Company shall, within thirty (30) days replenish, in case of partial appropriation, to its original level the Performance Security and in case of appropriation of entire Performance Security to provide a fresh Performance Security and the Company shall, within the time so granted replenish or furnish to AIFF a fresh Performance Security as aforesaid, failing which the AIFF shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement.

2.4 The following provisions of this Agreement shall not be subject to satisfaction of the Condition, Clauses 1, 2, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19.

3. Grant of the Commercial Rights

- 3.1 In consideration of the payment of the Fees and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement the AIFF grants to the Company solely and exclusively throughout the Territory to the exclusion of all others (including the AIFF), the Commercial Rights during the Term.
- 3.2 The Company shall be free to exploit and/or grant to third parties the right to exploit the Commercial Rights in any manner, for the purpose of maximizing value for the Competition. The commercial rights entered by the Company with third parties shall be subject to the approval of the Governing Council and shall always remain in compliance with the provisions of the AIFF's constitution.
- 3.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall not be entitled to exploit the Excluded Rights as set out in Schedule 4.
- 3.4 For the avoidance of doubt the Company shall have the right to grant the Pourage Rights at the Stadia to third party licensees. This would entail without limitation that all Participating Players shall consume the products of the licensee of the Pourage Rights whilst at the Stadia and shall only consume drinks of any kind from properly branded containers approved in advance by the Company and AIFF shall in relation to the Competition take all necessary measures to ensure compliance with these requirements.

4. Consideration

- 4.1 In consideration of the grant of the Commercial Rights and subject to compliance by AIFF with all of its obligations in this Agreement, the Company shall pay to the AIFF sums set out in Schedule 1 (the "Fees") in accordance with said Schedule.
- 4.2 The Fees shall be paid on the dates set out in Schedule 1, together with any applicable service tax which is chargeable in respect thereof and less any applicable taxes which may be levied from time to time on such Fees. AIFF will not be liable to bear any part of the Company's tax liability if any. If and for so long as AIFF can, by submission of all appropriate evidence (including written evidence and authority from any applicable competent authority), demonstrate that the Company may pay the Fees without any tax deducted at source ("TDS") then the Company shall pay such Fees without deducting the relevant TDS.
- 4.3 For the avoidance of doubt, all revenues generated from the exploitation of the Commercial Rights shall (save as may be expressly provided for in this Agreement) be for the account of and retained exclusively by the Company, and shall be received into a separate designated account maintained by the Company for this purpose.

5. Warranties, Undertakings and Obligations of AIFF

- 5.1 AIFF hereby warrants that it is the only body which is sanctioned by FIFA and AFC to administer football in India and is empowered to grant the Commercial Rights granted hereunder exclusively to the Company in the manner provided in this Agreement and that, subject as expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement, the Company shall be free to exclusively exploit the Commercial Rights in relation to their exploitation and/or implementation and without infringing the rights of any other party.
- 5.2 AIFF warrants and undertakes that it shall, upon request by the Company, provide all reasonable assistance to the Company in relation to any aspect connected with the delivery of the Commercial Rights, and the Company's fulfilment of its obligations under this Agreement.
- 5.3 AIFF warrants and undertakes that, subject to the approval of the Governing Council and in compliance with the provisions of the AIFF's constitution, it shall procure that the Company and/or the Official Licensees are free to exploit the Commercial Rights throughout the Territory subject to national laws and the applicable rules of FIFA, AFC and the IOC from time to time, and in particular that no action shall be taken by Participating Teams or Participating Players to impede or restrict the use and/or exploitation by the Company and/or the Official Licensees of the Commercial Rights.
- 5.4 AIFF warrants and undertakes that at no time shall it (nor its office holders, employees or other members of staff) communicate directly with any potential Official Licensee in relation to a potential Official Licensee Agreement which is being negotiated between the Company and the potential Official Licensee.
- 5.5 AIFF shall use its best endeavours to protect the good name, reputation, image and goodwill of AIFF, the Competition, the Matches, the Commercial Rights and of Indian football generally, ensuring that it and its office holders, employees and other members of staff shall conduct themselves with the highest standards of behaviour and integrity and shall not engage in any act or conduct (either itself, or through its officers, consultants, agents, contractors or employees) which may damage any aspect of the same.
- 5.6 AIFF shall ensure that neither the AIFF nor its office bearers, employees and other members of staff shall throughout the Term, commit or procure the commission of any illegal or wrongful acts in relation to this Agreement.
- 5.7 AIFF warrants and undertakes the Competition shall, throughout the Term, continue to constitute the top-tier of India's domestic professional football league competition for men. AIFF further undertakes that it shall not implement any changes to the Competition, except where such changes are mandated by directives issued by the FIFA (Federation Internationale de Football Association), AFC (Asian Football Confederation), IOC (International Olympic Committee) and/or SAFF (South Asian Football).

6. Warranties, Undertakings and Obligations of the Company

- 6.1 The Company warrants and undertakes that the Competition and Matches will be organised and staged to a high standard and shall take place in accordance with the Fixture Lists. - 8.3 All renewal and other fees necessary to maintain registrations for the Marks during the Term shall be for the cost of AIFF.

9. Protection of Rights

- 9.1 In the event that either Party to this Agreement becomes aware of any unauthorised use of the Commercial Rights, the Marks and/or the Proprietary Interests or any of them it shall promptly notify the other and without prejudice to either Party's rights with respect to such unauthorised use the procedure in this clause shall apply.
- 9.2 AIFF shall at its expense take all such action including the institution of legal proceedings, in relation to any unauthorised use as referred to in clause 9.1 or third party claim as the Company shall reasonably require.
- 9.3 In the event of AIFF failing to take action as required by the Company under clause 9.2 above within the reasonable time period, then AIFF hereby confirms that the Company may take such action, including the institution of legal proceedings. Further AIFF confirms that the Company shall have the right to join AIFF in proceedings where necessary under proprietorship laws in any jurisdiction.
- 9.4 AIFF undertakes to co-operate fully with the Company in the prosecution of all such claims and actions and to promptly execute and provide to the Company all documentation and information as may be reasonably and properly required by the Company to prosecute the claim.

10. Publicity and Promotion

- 10.1 The Company and the Official Licensees shall be entitled to use the names, images, likenesses and biographical details of the Participating Teams and/or Participating Players (the "Team and Player Information") featured in the Competition for the purpose of promoting and publicising the Competition and the Matches and exploiting the Commercial Rights in relation to this Agreement.
- 10.2 The Company acknowledges and agrees any use of the Team and Player Information shall be subject to the following:
  - (a) the Company and the Official Licensees shall be authorised to use the names, images, likenesses and biographical details of the Participating Players and/or Participating Teams; and
  - (b) the Company and the Official Licensees shall be authorised to use photographs, stills and coverage of each Match and other elements of Competition provided that any such images incorporate no less than two (2) players, of relatively equal size and proportion in any one image, and that such use does not imply a commercial endorsement by any Participating Player and/or Participating Team of any of the goods and/or services of the Official Licensees.
- 10.3 AIFF shall, upon request by the Company, provide all reasonable assistance to the Company for obtaining all permissions and consents in relation to the use by the Company and/or the Official Licensees of the Team and Player Information..
- 10.4 AIFF shall, upon request by the Company and at the cost of the Company, use best endeavours to procure that each Participating Player, subject to prior commitments to be disclosed to AIFF, will provide two (2) days of their time to the Company in each year of the Term for the purposes of promotion and/or activities of Official Licensees.

11. Scheduling/Cancellation/Rescheduling

- 11.1 Fixture Lists which shall be mutually agreed and prepared by AIFF and the Company, as soon as practicable, but wherever possible not less than three (3) months prior to the Matches taking place.
- 11.2 AIFF shall promptly notify the Company of any cancellation, reduction in scope or rescheduling of the Competition and/or Matches. If the Competition and/or Matches do not take place in accordance with the Fixture Lists as a direct or indirect result of any actions or omissions of AIFF (or any person connected with AIFF) or any person acting on behalf of AIFF or any such connected person, and/or the Company is prevented from exploiting the Commercial Rights or any part thereof (other than as a result of Force Majeure) then, without prejudice to any rights which the Company may have (whether pursuant to this contract or otherwise), the Company shall be entitled to an equitable reduction in the Fees as may be mutually agreed or if not agreed in a reasonable time period either party may refer the matter to an arbiter for final resolution in accordance with Clause 18 below.

12. Indemnity and Liability

- 12.1 The Company shall indemnify, defend and hold the AIFF harmless against any and all proceedings, actions and third-party claims for any loss, damage, cost and expense of whatever kind and nature arising out of any breach by the Company of any of the warranties, undertakings, obligations and/or conditions under this Agreement.
- 12.2 The Company's (which shall include its officers, directors, employees and agents) maximum aggregate liability in both contract, tort or otherwise howsoever arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be limited to a sum equal to the amount of the Fees payable by the Company for the year in which the event giving rise to such liability occurred.

13. Termination

- 13.1 Either party may terminate this Agreement forthwith upon notice in the event that the other party:
  - enters into a composition or arrangement with its creditors, has a receiver or administrator or administrative receiver appointed, or becomes insolvent or unable to pay its debts when they fall due;
  - (b) commits a material breach of any warranty, undertaking, term or condition of this Agreement and if said breach is capable of remedy fails to so remedy said breach within twenty-eight (28) days of receiving notice from the other party requiring remedy.
- 13.2 If either Party remedies/cures the breach complained of in 13.1(b) within the notice period then the rights of the other Party to terminate in relation to that breach shall henceforth be lost.
- 13.3 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, AIFF shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement immediately in the event that:
  - (a) the Company does not provide the Performance Security in accordance with clause

2;or

- (b) the Company has failed to pay any part of the Fees which is due and payable under this Agreement after the expiry of twenty-eight (28) days following a written request (which is sent in accordance with clause 16) for payment from the AIFF.
- 13.4 Termination of this Agreement in accordance with this Clause 13 shall operate without prejudice to the rights and liabilities of the Parties accrued prior to the date of termination and the Company shall cease to have any right under this Agreement with respect to any period after termination.
- In the event that the Company elects to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Clause 13.1, it shall be required to issue such termination notice no less than ninety (90) days prior to the commencement of any season of the Competition. Upon such termination, neither Party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other, except for the performance and discharge of any obligations relating to Competition or Matches scheduled to take place prior to effective date of termination i.e. the expiry of the notice period.

14. Insurance

- 14.1 AIFF shall throughout the Term use its best endeavours to secure and maintain, at its sole expense, insurance to cover the normal and customary risk of damage or loss resulting from an event of Force Majeure, or an event which may otherwise diminish the value of the Commercial Rights. In cases where payment of Fees has been made, the Company shall be the beneficiary of the insurance cover to the extent of the fees paid.
- 14.2 General liability insurance, Accidental medical insurance, Public liability and Property damage insurance shall be the responsibility of the Participating Teams
- 14.3 In the event that insurance arrangements are not available, the Parties shall work together and endeavour to put in place procedures, such as the introduction of substitute competition, which should have the effect of minimising any financial prejudice suffered, or which could be suffered, by the Company as a result of an event of Force Majeure or as otherwise described in this Clause 14.

15. Assignment

- 15.1 No party to this Agreement shall be entitled to assign the benefit or the burden of this Agreement, save that the Company may without the prior approval of AIFF freely assign the benefit in or novate the Agreement (or any part thereof) only for the purposes of corporate amalgamation or reconstruction provided that:
  - (a) such assignment or novation does not result in a change of Control of the Company; and
  - (b) the shareholders of the Company as at the date of this Agreement each continue to hold (directly or indirectly) at least twenty-six percent (26%) of the resulting entity; and
  - (c) AIFF has provided its prior written approval to such assignment or novation, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

AIFF shall, subject to the above conditions being met, promptly execute any document necessary to give effect to any such assignment or novation. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall be not assign this Agreement to any company which is a subsidiary of the Company or third party without the prior written approval of AIFF.

15.2 For the avoidance of any doubt, clause 15.1 above shall not operate to fetter in any way the Company's right to sell and/or grant to and/or license to third parties and/or otherwise exploit, the Commercial Rights provided that such exploitation does not constitute an assignment of this Agreement or a change of Control of the Company, and is in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and subject to AIFF's approval where applicable.

16. Notices

- A notice shall be deemed to have been served if delivered by hand on the date of delivery, if posted on the expiration of forty-eight (48) hours, or (in the case of airmail) seven (7) days after posting, if sent by facsimile message at the time of transmission, or if sent by courier upon signed acknowledgement of receipt.

17. Confidentiality

17.1 This Agreement and its particulars are strictly confidential and no party shall except as directed by any Court or Government department or Statutory Authority, disclose it or them, including, for the avoidance of doubt, the financial terms to any third party, without the consent of the other party.

18. Arbitration and Governing Law

- 18.1 All disputes and differences ("Disputes") between the Parties hereto shall at first be subjected to an attempt at conciliation by the Management Committee and failing a resolution of such Disputes shall be referred to Arbitration under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 by a panel of three arbitrators (the "Arbitral Tribunal"), consisting of persons of eminence and conversant with adjudicatory proceedings, one (1) of which shall be nominated by AIFF, one (1) by the Company, and the third member is to be mutually decided by the two arbitrators, who is required to be a retired judge of any High Court
- 18.2 The Arbitral Tribunal shall make best efforts, if possible, to conclude the proceeding in summary process at the earliest within 3 (three) months from reference being so made. The conclusive award of the Tribunal shall be final and binding on both the Parties. The seat and the venue of the Tribunal shall be at New Delhi and appropriate jurisdictional Court, namely the Delhi High Court, would have exclusive jurisdiction to entertain any proceeding as per the applicable provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996, as amended from time to time.

19. General

19.1 Nothing contained or implied in this Agreement shall be interpreted as constituting a partnership, agency or trust between the parties hereto and no party has any authority to

- bind another party in any manner whatsoever unless otherwise expressly provided in the Agreement.
- 19.2 A Party may not make press or other announcements or releases relating to the Agreement and the transactions the subject of this Agreement without the prior written approval of the other Party to the form and manner of the announcement or release.
- 19.3 Each Party at its own cost agrees to do and execute and perform such other deeds, documents, assurances, acts and things only as may be required to give effect to the terms, intent and purposes of this Agreement.
- 19.4 The granting by any Party of any time or indulgence in respect of any breach of any provision of this Agreement by the other Party shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach and the waiver by any Party of any breach of any provision of this Agreement by the other shall not prevent the subsequent enforcement of that provision and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.
- 19.5 This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when executed shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute one and the same Agreement.
- 19.6 All rights, remedies and powers conferred upon the Parties are cumulative and shall not be deemed to be exclusive of any other rights, remedies or powers now or subsequently conferred upon them by law or otherwise.
- 19.7 Should any term of this Agreement be considered void or voidable under any applicable law or under the provisions of AIFF's constitution, then such terms shall be severed or amended in such a manner as to render the remainder of this Agreement valid or enforceable, unless the whole commercial object is thereby frustrated.
- 19.8 This Agreement may only be modified or any provision waived if such modification or waiver is in writing and signed by a duly authorised representative of each Party. Each of the Clauses of this Agreement are severable and distinct from the other and if anyone or more of the Clauses of this Agreement, or any part thereof, is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality or enforceability of the remaining Clauses of this Agreement shall not be thereby affected or impaired in any way.
- Each Party warrants and represents to the other Party that such Party has the full power and authority to enter into, sign and deliver this Agreement and to perform the transactions contemplated hereby and that such Party is duly incorporated or organised and existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organisation. This Agreement represents the entire agreement between the Parties in respect of its subject matter save as relates to the Funding Agreement and supersedes all previous arrangements, agreements, understandings, bids and correspondence between them and each Party confirms that in entering into this Agreement, it has not relied on and shall have no remedy (either in contract or tort) in respect of any statement, representation, warranty or understanding which is not expressly set out in this Agreement (save for any warranty given on or around the date of signature of this Agreement which was given in relation to the signature and/or termination of any agreements or arrangements prior to and in relation to the signature of this Agreement) provided that nothing in this paragraph shall operate to limit or exclude any liability for fraud.
- 19.10 Save as may be expressly agreed otherwise in writing each Party shall retain ownership of all material and all intellectual property rights therein created by them or otherwise acquired by them through the operation of this Agreement.

[*Note: 'Guaranteed Payment' shall be the amount quoted by the Company in its Commercial Bid].

2. Defined Terms:

"Gross Revenues" shall mean the aggregate of all gross revenue, of any kind whatsoever, generated and received by the Company in connection with or pursuant to or as a consequence of the exploitation of the Commercial Rights. The Company shall, as soon as practicable and in any event no later than thirty (30) days following the finalisation of its audited accounts for each year during the Term submit to AIFF a certificate duly signed by the Company's statutory auditor certifying that all sums receivable by the Company in relation to the exploitation of the Commercial Rights for the relevant year during the Term have been accurately determined.

For the avoidance of doubt, Gross Revenues shall exclude any income generated by the participating clubs in the ISL, including but not limited to club-level sponsorships, ticketing sales applicable to the clubs, merchandise sales, and licensing of club brands or logos.

3. Payment Schedule:

Payment to the AIFF of the Guaranteed Payments will be made in accordance with para 1 of this Schedule. For any particular year in the Term, as per the audited accounts, if the amount of '5% of Gross Revenues' is higher than the 'Guaranteed Payments' payable in that particular year, then the Company shall pay to AIFF the difference amount (equivalent to 5% of Gross Revenue for the particular year minus the Guaranteed Payments already paid for the particular year) within thirty (30) days of the finalisation of the audited accounts in respect of the relevant year of the Term. Time is an essence in relation to the Company's payment obligations hereunder. Interest shall be payable by the Company to AIFF on any late payments of any amount including any instalment of Fees at a rate of twelve per cent (12%) per annum.

- 2) The AIFF shall retain rights to use the copyrights as defined above solely for promotion of Indian football and for other non-commercial purposes, and not for any commercial exploitation or public distribution.
- 3) The defined windows for Live Telecast, Clips, Re-Telecast, Digital streaming shall be agreed upon between the Commercial rights holder and the broadcaster/streaming platform, with the approval of the Governing Council.

4) Number of Participating Teams and Matches envisaged for 2025-2026 season:

- 14 Participating Teams in Double round robin format (14x13) + 7 = 189 Matches
- AIFF shall endeavor to adhere to the roadmap established with the AFC in 2019, subject to the Participating Teams' compliance with the licensing criteria laid down by the AFC and the AIFF.
- AIFF shall make its best endeavour to schedule and conduct one hundred eighty-nine (189) Matches during the 2025–2026 season. In the event that the actual number of Matches scheduled and conducted is less than one hundred eighty-nine (189), the Company shall be entitled to submit a written request to the AIFF for a reduction to the Guaranteed Payment amount for the first year of the Term. Any such reduction shall not exceed the proportionate decrease in the number of Matches and, under no circumstances, shall the Guaranteed Payment amount for first year of the Term be reduced below INR 30 crore. Such request shall be considered by the Governing Council in good faith.

Further, for each season commencing from 2026–2027 and continuing through the remainder of the Term, the AIFF shall make its best endeavour to ensure a minimum of one hundred eightynine (189) Matches per season. If, in any such season, the number of Matches scheduled and conducted is either less than or exceeds one hundred eighty-nine (189), the Guaranteed Payment amount for that particular year of the Term shall be subject to adjustment, as mutually discussed and agreed upon in the Governing Council. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such adjusted Guaranteed Payment amount for any year of the Term shall not be less than INR 30 crore.

- 5) No franchisee fee payment shall be applicable from 2025-2026 season, either for the Founding or Non-founding Participating Teams.
- 6) Founding Participating Teams shall pay to the Company ten per cent (10%) of their revenue (excluding Central Revenue Pool allocation and grassroot grants from the Company). Revenue here shall imply all revenues of the Participating Team except Central Revenue pool and grassroot grants from the Company.
- 7) Non-founding Participating Teams shall pay to the Company twenty per cent (20%) of their revenue (excluding Central Revenue Pool allocation and grassroot grants from the Company):
  - for the remaining duration till the expiry of their ten (10) years in the Competition;
  - for ten (10) seasons from the date of promotion to the Competition (in case a new Participating Team is getting promoted to the Competition). Ten (10) seasons shall include the season in which such Participating Team is promoted to the Competition.
- 8) Promotion and relegation to be implemented at the end of 2025-2026 season:
  - One (1) Participating Team to be relegated

- One (1) Participating Team to be promoted
- 9) Given the promotion and relegation to be implemented at the end of the 2025-2026 season:
  - The number of Participating Teams for the subsequent seasons shall remain at twelve (12). However, the Governing Council, shall reserve the right to induct new Participating Teams, hence taking the total number of Participating Teams to more than twelve (12). Governing Council shall endeavor, on a best effort basis, that the such induction of new Participating Teams does not adversely impact the Central Revenue Pool contributions to the Participating Teams already existing in the Competition.
- 10) Relegated Participating Teams to get support in terms of parachute payments as per time spent in the Competition:
  - 1 year For an amount equal to zero per cent (0%) of the applicable Central Revenue Pool share
  - 2 years For an amount equal to twenty per cent (20%) of the applicable Central Revenue Pool share
  - 3 years For an amount equal to thirty per cent (30%) of the applicable Central Revenue Pool share
  - >3 years For an amount equal to forty per cent (40%) of the applicable Central Revenue Pool share

Parachute payments shall be made by the AIFF for a period of:

- One (1) year for such Participating Teams who have competed for two (2) years in the Competition
- Two (2) years for such Participating Teams who have competed for three (3) or more years in the Competition. For instance, for a Participating Team who have competed for three (3) years, the parachute payment for each of the two years shall an amount equal to fifteen per cent (15%) of the applicable Central Revenue Pool share for the year in which such Participating Team is relegated, and the same amount shall be paid annually over the two-year period i.e. fifteen per cent (15%) for each of the two years.

11) The Company shall be responsible for:

- preparation of Fixture Lists in mutual discussion with AIFF. The Company shall draw up a schedule for the Matches in each season, including scheduling on weekdays/weekends, in order to maximize the potential viewership.
- producing (on ground) the entire tournament, with a feed ready for broadcast (linear) and streaming.
- managing the entire operations of the Competition from a central point of view
- organising the playoffs and the finals including hosting of the match
- compulsorily following a transparent bidding process for selecting a media rights partner (TV and Digital), in order to maximize value for the Competition and the Clubs at large
- exploiting all the central Commercial Rights of the Competition
- marketing the Competition in a suitable manner so as to improve the stature of the Competition, as well as enhancing the viewership.

- for proving the Football video support system from the 2025-2026 season onwards for a minimum of 5 years of the Term. Basis mutual discussion with the Company and the AIFF, the AIFF may mandate upgradation of the same to VAR from Year 6 onwards.
- 12) The Company shall distribute Central Revenue Pool to the Participating Teams in the Competition:
  - The Central Revenue Pool shall comprise the total revenues generated by the Company through monetization of Commercial Rights under this Agreement, excluding the contributions made by Participating Teams and net of the production costs.
  - The sharing of Central Revenue Pool with the Participating Teams shall be decided by the Company, however the sharing between Founding and Non-founding Participating Teams shall be differential, wherein the difference in per centage share of Founding and Non-Founding Participating Teams shall be atleast twenty per cent (20%)
  - The distribution of Central Revenue Pool between the Company and all the Participating Teams shall be decided basis the commercial deals. The Company shall have the discretion to decide the aforementioned distribution share, but it should not be lower in the 2025-2026 season than the weighted average of the percentage sharing with the Participating Teams the 2024-2025 season of the Competition.
  - The distribution of Central Revenue Pool between Founding and Non founding Participating Teams shall be reviewed by AIFF, from time to time at its discretion, basis feedback from all the Participating Teams, and also depending upon the period of the media rights and sponsorship deals.
- 13) The Company would be required to contribute the following to grassroots development of Indian football:
  - Amounts equal to 2.5% of Gross Revenues for the first 5 years of the Term
  - Amounts equal to 5.0% of Gross Revenues for the next 10 years of the Term

The above is subject to review of the Governing Council, basis the media rights deals renewal cycles and the values derived thereof. Above payments can be made in the form of a CSR contribution by the Company or its Affiliate, in part or whole, subject to applicable law and compliance.

14) Following shall be the conditions for the Participating Teams:

- The Participating Teams will receive a minimum of 70% of contributions made by the Company for grassroots development and such amounts would be distributed equally between the Participating Teams. The balance amounts shall be distributed to the I-League Clubs basis discretion of the AIFF. The amounts mentioned above are mandated to be spent on the grassroots development by the Participating Teams, and will be subject to verification by the Governing Council.
- There shall be a strict enforcement of the salary caps for all Participating Teams in the Competition from 2025-2026 season onwards.
  - For the 2025–2026 season, the applicable salary cap shall be equivalent to the salary cap established for the 2024–2025 season.
    - For avoidance of doubt, the Salary cap for 2024-2025 season shall be considered as INR 18,00,00,000 (Indian Rupees eighteen crore).
    - The salary cap shall include bonuses to be paid to the Participating Players and any other compensation going out to the Participating Players.

- The salary cap is applicable for all Participating Players including the marquee players, either Indian or foreign players
- Basis discussions with the AIFF, all the Participating Teams shall adhere to the salary cap in 2025-2026.
- This salary cap does not include the cost of Coaches and non-playing technical staff.
- AIFF may from time to time choose to tier the Participating Players in specified salary bands with a maximum specified.
- AIFF shall work with the Company, to design squad sizes and grades of players, in order for Participating Teams to create competitive outfits in the salary cap.
- The salary payouts shall be audited at the end of each season by the AIFF, and suitable penalties shall be levied in case of breaches of the same.
- No relatives/close family a Participating Player (defined as anyone who is a dependent by law, or is a dependent by the virtue of having had 50% of financial support from a Participating Player in the preceding year), shall be allowed to have any employment with the legal entity representing the Participating Team, or any of legal entities who are affiliates, subsidiaries or Ultimate beneficial owners of the Participating Team. However, the this shall not be applicable for employment which either exists already or is proposed, for non football related purposes. Such employment shall be disclosed by the Participating Team to AIFF and the Governing Council shall appropriately take decisions on the same, if required.
- All Participating Teams shall be required to disclose to the Governing Council, any individual sponsorship/endorsement agreements entered into between a Participating Player and the Participating Team or its subsidiaries, affiliates or Ultimate beneficial owners. The Governing Council reserves the right to review such agreements and take appropriate actions if it determines that the terms significantly exceed the prevailing market rates for such Participating Player.
- All Participating Teams shall be required to contribute to their own grassroots development every year
  - 2.5% of Participating Team's Revenue (Total revenue less income from Central Revenue Pool) for first 5 years of the Term
  - 5.0% of Participating Team's (Total revenue less income from Central Revenue Pool) for the next 10 years of the Term
- The Participating Teams shall be required to release their players for the Indian National team's matches in accordance with the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players.
   In case of any grievances by the Competition Clubs around the same, the decision taken by the Governing Council shall be final.
- The Participating Teams shall incorporate the official logo/marks of the Competition (including if applicable the names of Official Licensees in mutual discussion with the Company) on their playing strip.
- All Clubs seeking to participate in AFC-sanctioned tournaments shall comply with the eligibility requirements and regulations established by AFC, including but not limited to the minimum number of competitive matches required per season and/or any other applicable standards stipulated by the AFC. The AIFF shall make its best endeavour to provide adequate opportunities to the Clubs through multiple competitions to fulfil such eligibility requirements.

15) Ticketing process and guidelines

- Ticketing rights are owned by AIFF as the owner and operator of the Competition
- Ticketing rights for non-central Matches (i.e. excluding 7 Matches for playoffs, semi-finals and finals)
- Ticketing rights are delegated to the hosting clubs
- Hosting Club shall print and distributes tickets, basis guidelines given by the Governing Council (around indicative pricing guidelines, central sponsor logos on tickets, paperless entry wherever possible, making tickets available '30' days before a match)
- Hosting Club shall bear the cost of ticketing and shall keep all the ticketing revenues.
- Ticketing rights for playoff Matches:
